

A map of the United States with three regions highlighted by colored circles and callout boxes. The North/West region is highlighted in green, the Central region in blue, and the South/East region in red. Each region's callout box includes the name of the region and the number of locations. The map shows state boundaries and major water bodies.

North/West

14 Locations

Central

21 Locations

South/East

14 Locations