

Health and Safety Performance

Recommendation

That the report is received.

Executive summary

1. The report covers trends in key health and safety referencing key indicators across AT, for the months covering November and December 2019. The trends for all indicators are generally stable or improving. There is a marginal increase in the total recordable injury frequency rate for AT employees over the busy holiday period, however a slight decrease in customer injury frequency rates was recorded.

Attachment

Attachment Number	Description
1	Health and Safety Performance Graphs

Document ownership

Submitted by	Steve Saunders Head of Health & Safety
Recommended by	Bryan Sherritt Executive General Manager Safety	